FROM THE EDITOR

I.P. Today Welcomes a NEW COLUMNIST

We are proud to welcome Tony Zeuli as a new, monthly columnist. His monthly column, "Trial Lawyer's Notebook" is first appearing in this issue.

Mr. Zeuli is a trial lawyer specializing in patent and trademark litigation with the IP firm Merchant & Gould. He also has considerable experience before the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Tony has given several presentations and published numerous articles on intellectual property litigation, especially patent claim construction. His articles have also appeared in The Federal Lawyer and Bench & Bar. Prior to joining Merchant & Gould, Tony was a physics engineer at Argonne National Laboratory, where he was involved the study of nuclear physics. Mr. Zeuli can be reached at 612.371.5208, or by email at tzeuli@merchantgould.com, or by visiting his web site at <http://www.zeuli.com>.
